Territorial Prison,

Messrs E. A. Cutter and W. C. Davis returned from Yuma last night, where they have been looking after the interests of the Territorial prison. They made a demand on the old Zulick board of prison commissioners to deliver over the books and papers of the institution which was refused. Geo. H. Stevens was not present, and it is learned that he as treasurer of the old board, holds about $5,700 of the prison funds. The whereabouts of Stevens was not known in Yuma, and the last news of him came from some place in California. Mr. Cutter stated to the reporter last night that he believed that had Sievens been present with the money the old board would have transferred the prison, books, etc. to the new commissioners. Tucson, October 10th, 1889 EDITOR CITIZEN.-My attention has been called to an article signed "Alert" published in this morning's S ar. Something New and Good. Col. Durr has again made a step forward as a public benefactor. It had come to his ears recently, that some of the ladies of Tucson were complaining about the beer sold in this city being bitter. Being on confidential terms with his grandmother, a famous old lady who The prices for ice in the east and the has spent her life in studying the likes west have advanced 25 to 50 per cent and dislikes of her sex, he wrote her, and consumers are made to pay dearly explaining what was the matter with the for the mild winter just past.
